iv. All Public Relations for ASUCR;

v. Promotional items, artwork, marketing for ASUCR;

vi. Overseeing the ASUCR website;

vii. Communications and Social Media outlets for ASUCR.

9. Other subordinate committees

Other subordinate committees will be created as designated in the Bylaws or by the Senate.

SECTION C. University-wide Committees

The Personnel Committee shall appoint members to University-wide Committees as governed by the Personnel Committee bylaw and as approved by the Senate.

ARTICLE X: Initiative, Referendum and Recall

SECTION A. Initiative

1. An initiative shall be defined as legislation voted on by the entire ASUCR membership that;
2. All undergraduates shall have the power to initiate resolution by means of a petition signed by fifteen (15) percent of its membership;
3. The petition shall be presented to the Senate, which shall call an election no earlier than two (2) weeks and no later than four (4) weeks after the filing of the petition;
4. The Senate can choose by an affirmative vote of a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the Senators present when a quorum exists, to extend the timeline;
5. The complete text of the initiative must appear in the first issue of the student newspaper published after the filing of the petition;
6. A majority of the votes cast shall be sufficient for approval of the initiative.
7. Passage of the initiative shall take effect the following academic year. Resolutions are only in effect for the year they are voted in. 19

SECTION B. Referendum

1. A referendum shall be defined as a form of legislation voted on by the entire ASUCR membership which directly reduces, increases or changes the designated use of student fees;
2. Upon presentation of a petition signed by fifteen (15) percent of the members of the undergraduate student body, an act of the Senate must be submitted to a referendum vote by members of the ASUCR Senate;
3. A referendum may also be put to a vote of the entire ASUCR membership upon an affirmative two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the Student Senate present ;
4. The Senate shall call an election no earlier than two (2) and no later than four (4) academic weeks after the filing of the petition;
5. Fifty (50) plus one percent, of the votes cast shall be sufficient to approve the act;
6. In an election, a majority of the votes cast, shall be sufficient to approve a referendum as long as 20% of the student body it effects turns out to vote;
7. The referendum shall take effect the following academic year unless otherwise specified in the referendum, and subject to University policy.

SECTION C. Recall

1. Recall shall be used to remove an elected representative from office. Presentation of a petition signed by twenty (20) percent of an academic college to the Senate will cause a specified elected Senator to be the subject of a vote of recall within said academic college.
2. Presentation of a petition signed by twenty (20) percent of the undergraduate student body to the Senate will cause a specified elected representative to be subject to a vote of recall by the students as a whole.
3. The Senate shall call an election no earlier than two (2) and no later than four (4) academic weeks after the filing of the petition.
4. The complete text of the petition must appear in the first issue of the student newspaper published after the filing of the petition.
5. A majority of the undergraduate student body voting shall be used to remove the specified elected representative.
6. Any Officer or Senator may be subject to recall. 7. If the specified elected representative is recalled, that person shall be removed immediately, and the position shall be filled according to this constitution.

ARTICLE XI: Amendments

SECTION A. Adoption

1. Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in one of three ways:
 - (a) The presentation of a petition to the Senate signed by fifteen (15) percent of the members of the undergraduate student body 20 automatically qualifies the proposed amendment to be voted on by the undergraduate student body.
 - (b) The Senate can propose amendments to the Constitution by an affirmative two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present when a quorum exists, which would then qualify the proposed amendment to be voted on by the undergraduate student body.
 - (c) The Senate can amend the Constitution with a unanimous vote of the entire membership of the Senate. This shall be used only in the case that the proposed amendments are not fundamental changes to the structure of ASUCR. Proposed amendments must be minor in nature (i.e. grammatical changes and clarifications) and submitted to the entire Senate and campus media two (2) weeks prior to the Senate meeting at which the vote will take place. The entire text of the amendment must be in the campus newspaper;
2. Upon the incidence of case (a) or (b) presented above, the Senate shall call an election no earlier than two (2) weeks and no later than four (4) academic weeks after the proposition of the amendment.
3. Upon the incident of case (b) presented above, the Senate may also allow proposed amendment to be voted upon in the regular spring election.
4. The time frame can be extended by the Senate by an affirmative two-thirds (2/3) vote of Senate present when a quorum exists.
5. A majority vote of those voting in the election shall be necessary for the adoption of the amendment.
6. The amendment shall take effect immediately upon adoption, unless otherwise provided for in the amendment.

ARTICLE XII: Publication

SECTION A. Publication of the Constitution and Bylaws

1. ASUCR must keep the current and all previously adopted versions of the ASUCR Constitution and authorship on disk, on file, and online to be available to all students upon request.
2. The Chair of the Legislative Review Committee shall be responsible for maintaining and distributing (upon request) copies of the current Constitution and Bylaws. The Chair of the Legislative Review Committee has up to two weeks to update the Constitution and Bylaws in case of a change.
3. The ASUCR Constitution shall be kept and updated at the following locations and with the following personnel: all campus libraries, the ASUCR Website, the Chancellor, the ASUCR Executive Director, ASUCR front desk and all ASUCR professional staff.
4. All elected or appointed ASUCR representatives shall receive a copy of the Constitution and Bylaws upon assuming office. 21

ARTICLE XIII: Ratification

SECTION A. Implementation

1. This Constitution shall become effective upon a majority approval of the undergraduate students voting in an ASUCR election.
2. This Constitution shall take effect upon commencement 2015. Spring 2015 Elections shall elect all positions prescribed herein, however the present officers, Boards and committees shall continue to function as directed in that previously ratified constitution until the final day of commencement.

SECTION B. Previously Ratified Constitutions

The ASUCR Constitution has been previously revised in April two thousand sixteen (4/16), April two thousand thirteen (4/13), April two thousand twelve (4/2012), May nineteen hundred and ninety-six (5/1996), and in May nineteen hundred and ninety-one (5/1991).
