Prepare to Impress

Success is where preparation and opportunity meet
Career Fairs: First Impressions

- Excellent Communication Skills
- Preparation & Employer Research
- Outward Appearance, Resume, and Overall Confidence

Great First Impression
Learn who is attending ahead of time and research companies of interest.

- The Career Center – UCR Handshake (careers.ucr.edu)
- Research allows you to determine appropriate employers to approach at a job fair.
- You will be better prepared to have a meaningful conversation with the employer and maximize your chances of creating a positive impression!

Focus your company research on the following areas: company background/history, products/services, size, location, and latest news/events.

- Minimally, explore the organization’s web page. Your research should allow you to ask engaging questions.

Example:
“….I know that Target is very community service focused and has many causes that you support. I am also active in my community and on campus. Can you tell me about how Target supports employees in this area?”

Create a Game Plan

If the plan doesn’t work change the plan, but never the goal
Prepare: Create a Game Plan

- Create a “game plan” to target your top companies.
- Avoid starting with your top companies.
- Use other organizations to practice and get comfortable with the process.
- In determining companies of interest, be open-minded.
  - Do not solely concentrate on “big names” or large organizations.
  - There are often great opportunities with companies with which you are not familiar.
Dress to Impress

You never get a second chance to make a first impression
Dress to Impress: Who would you hire?

• Dress to make a positive first impression

• Conservative, colored suit

• Eye contact and handshake are important

• Be confident, enthusiastic, positive, and polite

• Look polished

• Visit the R’ Professional Closet in the Bear’s Den across the Scotty Store
Dress to Impress: Business Casual vs Business Professional
Communicate to Impress

Communication—the human connection—is the key to personal and career success.
Initiating the Conversation with Employers

After selecting employers to contact at the career fair, prepare a 30-second synopsis summarizing your professional background, skills, and interests.

- This will create a smooth start to your conversation.
- Include the following information:
  - Name
  - Class level
  - Major
  - Opportunities you are seeking
  - Relevant experience
  - Highlights of skills and strengths
  - Knowledge of the company
Hello! My name is Sam and I’m working on my Bachelors in Business Administration. I have a great passion for marketing specifically. Last summer I had an internship with a small start up company where I had the opportunity to work on their social media branding. I gained a lot of great skills from this internship and I am looking forward to applying what I have learned in a career position. I noticed on your company’s website that you do a lot of work in _________ and I was interested in learning more about that aspect of your business.
Activity

Practice Makes Perfect

• Briefly prepare your 30-Second Pitch.
• Introduce yourself to your neighbor and give your “30-Second Pitch”...
• Give feedback to your partner
• Now switch
Examples:

- What kinds of skills and experience do you look for in the employees you hire?
- What are the characteristics of your most successful employees?
- Are graduate degrees important to advancing within your organization? Which ones?
- Which courses or experiences do you suggest to be a successful candidate?
- What kind of entry-level positions (or internships) exist within your organization?
- Does your company hire on a continual basis or just at certain times of the year?
- How long does the hiring process take? What does it consist of?
- What percent of applicants are eventually hired? What is the retention rate?
Continuing the Conversation

• Keep the conversation on a professional level.

• If you are asked, tell the recruiter your cumulative, major and/or quarter grade point average.

• If your GPA is not stellar it may not matter, depending on the employer. Do not attempt to justify or over explain your GPA.
Impress with your Resume

Your resume says a lot about you, it determines whether you will be called in for an interview or not.
The Resume

Resume Transaction

- After generating that initial connection with the employer, you will most likely be asked to provide them with a copy of your resume.
- Some employers will provide you with resume feedback.
- A resume that is polished and mistake-free, along with your conversation with the employer, will help you stand out as a candidate.
- Don’t be surprised if an employer can not accept your resume.

Resume Tips

- Print your resume on neutral-colored paper that is professional in appearance.
- Use black ink.
- Tailored objectives/general objectives.
- Do not include any graphics or pictures on your resume.
- Use a font that is easy to read at a glance.
- Keep resumes in an easily accessible location.
  - Also make sure that your resumes are not wrinkled, rained on, or otherwise blemished.
- Be sure to bring plenty of copies.
Create a lasting Impression

You never get a second chance to make a first impression
Things to Remember

• Bring a pen and paper
• Dress in professional business attire (i.e., a suit).
• Wear comfortable business-style shoes—lines can become quite long.
• Consolidate the number of items you are carrying.
• Please be aware that you can not leave your backpack inside the facility. The Career Center is not responsible for your belongings.
• Act in a way that is polite to everyone with whom you come into contact as soon as you are on the job fair property.
  • Employer representatives are not just located at their booths!
• Remain calm while waiting in line. Becoming impatient does not create a positive first impression!
• If you have last minute questions, visit the Career Center table.
