

ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEW PROGRAM

WHAT IS THE OCI PROGRAM?

The On-Campus Interview Program (OCI) invites employers on campus to interview students for full-time career/intern positions. Employer participants include business, industry, non-profit organizations and government agencies. Positions are generally entry-level in nature and encompass a broad range of functional areas, including, but not limited to: finance, marketing, management, sales, operations, social service, technology, engineering and laboratories.

The program operates during the fall, winter and spring quarters. Undergraduate and Graduate students from all academic departments are welcome to participate. Through Handshake, students can schedule On-Campus interviews, learn about participating organizations, view job listings, submit resumes online, select an interview time and research employers. (This service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.)

Pro Tip: Some employers select candidates directly from Career Fairs or Information Sessions (not through Handshake), so be sure to attend events relevant to your interests.

How do I upload a resume and other documents?

- Under your name on the navigation bar, select the drop-down menu and locate documents.
- Select “Add New Document” and give it a name and a document type. Upload your PDF or Word document.
- Upload your other documents the same way. Remember to customize your documents for specific positions to be most competitive.
- It is recommended that you have your resume critiqued by a career counselor before uploading in the system.

How do I submit my resume for an interview?

- If you qualify for the position, click the “apply” button located under the job title. Attach required documents and click “submit application.”
- Some employers require you to apply directly to the company website as well in order to be eligible.

Can I submit my resume for multiple interviews?

- Yes, it is highly encouraged that you try to interview with as many companies as you can to increase your chances of getting hired.

What is the difference between an open, a preselect, a preselect continuous and room only schedule?

- An open schedule means that if you meet the jobs qualifications, you can select an interview time. It is on a first-come, first-served basis.
- A preselect schedule means that if you meet the qualifications and apply, the employer will then prescreen all resumes and invite those students they wish to interview. The employer will then prescreen all resumes and invite those students they wish to interview.
- A preselect continuous means the employer will make a waitlist in case some students decline the interview.
- A room only schedule means that the employer is filling their schedule using alternate ways. Examples: Career Fairs, Information Sessions, directly from website and other means.

How will I know if I have been selected for an interview?

- You will receive a notification that you have been invited to an interview.
