Request for Accommodations Help

You can request your course accommodations using the tools in this section. Once a request is submitted it will be automatically approved if you do not require any changes to your accommodations. If you do require changes, a Disability Specialist will be notified and the process will begin to update your accommodations. You may need to meet with your Disability Specialist as part of this process.

Once a request has been approved your instructor will receive an email and instructions on how to access your accommodation letter by logging into the instructor portion of this website. You are able to access your own accommodation letter on this website at any time once your request has been approved.

If you have any questions or require assistance please contact your advisor. Click the 'Accommodations' button in the main menu in order to get started.

- Click on “Accommodations” tab

My accommodation(s) are correct the way they are

- A Faculty Letter of Accommodation will be sent to your faculty
- You may download a copy of the letter sent to your faculty

The screenshot shows a web interface for requesting accommodations. At the top, there are navigation tabs: Accommodations, FAQ, Submit a comment, and Help. Below the tabs, the heading is "Request Accommodations". A yellow message box states: "Your accommodation request(s) have been submitted. Please review the list below." Below this, there is a paragraph: "You can use this page to request accommodations for your courses. Click the 'Request' button on your first course in the list below to get started." Underneath, it says "Your courses:" followed by a "Show term:" dropdown menu set to "Summer Session 2017" and a "Refresh" button. A table lists the courses. The first row is highlighted and has a "Request" button. The second row, for "FAKE 1 Section 1 LEC", has a status of "Sent" and a "Get letter" button circled in black. The status text for the second row reads: "Your accommodation letter has been sent to your instructor and is awaiting Confirmation."
