INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE

Maximum unit rules for students are calculated based on the rules met from the Registration Minimum/Maximum Hours page (SFAMHRS) for the first pass of registration when undergraduates are limited to 17 units, as well as by rules for earned academic standing. Maximum hours are then adjusted for the second pass when undergraduates may be permitted to enroll in more than 17 units.

Minimum units are adjusted in accordance with groups on campus (such as athletics, who will enforce them starting the first day of instruction) that require the student to attend a certain amount of units to be eligible to compete. These changes are coordinated with the Registrar’s Office or Graduate Division Academic Affairs as needed.

This guide will demonstrate how to alter a student’s minimum or maximum registration units.

RELATED POLICIES, REGULATIONS, GUIDING PRINCIPLES, AND COMMON PRACTICES

1. UCR Graduate Rate Task Force Report. On January 28, 2014, the proposal increasing the unit cap for undergraduate students to 17 units during the first pass of enrollment was endorsed.
2. Per the International Student Resource Center, nonimmigrant students with certain visa types must maintain their nonimmigrant visa status as it is essential to living, working, and studying in the United States. They must maintain a full course load (12 units) at all times regardless of whether Banner enforces it.
3. Undergraduate students undertaking an approved course load of 10 units or fewer in any quarter receive a 50% tuition reduction for that quarter. Students considering part-time study should discuss their plans with the associate dean of their college, whose approval is required.
4. Graduate students approved for half-time status may not enroll in more than 6 units at any level.
5. To be eligible to participate in organized practice sessions, compete, and receive an athletics scholarship a student-athlete must be enrolled in at least 12 units. If student-athletes have concerns with classes counting toward eligibility, have them consult their Student-Athlete Academic Counselor.
6. All graduate students are expected to carry a full academic course load unless good reasons exist for not doing so. Graduate students are considered to be full-time if they are carrying 12 graduate units, with one exception. MBA students, excluding Flex MBA, are considered full-time at 16 units.
7. Governed by the Academic Senate of the Riverside Division: HSR2.3.3, HSR2.3.4, HSR2.3.6, ENR2.3.1, ENR2.3.2, NR2.3.1, NR2.3.4, NR2.3.7.

HSR2.3.3 A student is expected to make regular progress toward the degree. For undergraduate students, enrollment in less than 12 units must have the approval of the Associate Dean. (Am 4 Feb 88) (Am 25 May 00)
HSR2.3.4
An undergraduate student on probation may not enroll in more than 17 units without the consent of the student’s academic advisor. An undergraduate who is subject to dismissal may not enroll in more than 15 units without the consent of the student's academic advisor. (Am 25 May 00) (Am 30 May 06)

HSR2.3.6
Courses may be added until the end of the third week of instruction with the consent of the instructor. No course may be added after that time without approval of the Associate Dean. Any addition that would increase the student's academic load to more than 20 units must also be approved by the student's academic advisor. (Am 23 Feb 78) (Am 25 May 00)

ENR2.3.1
Each quarter, students will secure enrollment in each of their courses by the deadlines and methods published in the Schedule of Classes. Changes in enrollment after the published deadlines require the approval of the Associate Dean of the college. Course schedules of fewer than 12 units must have the approval of the Associate Dean of the college. (Am 23 Feb 78) (Am 25 May 00)

ENR2.3.2
Students on Probation or Subject to Dismissal status are required to consult with an academic advisor prior to the third week of each quarter in which they are in academic difficulty. A student on Probation or Subject to Dismissal may not enroll in more than 13 units without the approval of the Associate Dean of the college. (En 21 Nov 02)

NR2.3.1
Course enrollments in any quarter of fewer than 12 units must have the approval of the Dean of the college. (Am 21 Nov 02)

NR2.3.4
A student on probation may enroll for more than 15 quarter units only with the consent of the Dean of the college. (Am 30 May 06)

NR2.3.7
Students in "Good Standing" may enroll for more than 20 quarter units only with the consent of the Dean of the College. (En 30 May 06)

PROCEDURES

1. Go to SFAREGS.
2. Enter the Term and the SID. Click Go.
3. Stay on Enrollment Information.
   a. Note: If you receive a message that enrollment status prohibits registration, ensure that the Status in the Enrollment Information box is EL (Eligible to Register). If the value is not EL, the student has cancelled or withdrawn from the term.
      i. Note: If the student has a registration hold, you will get an error message and the student will have to resolve the hold before you can adjust the units.
4. Place the cursor in the Maximum hours field and change the value.
   a. As discussed above, minimum hours are likely adjusted for students who have policies requiring them to be enrolled in a certain number of units (such as student athletes) and should be adhered to.
